INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Related Records

The records reproduced in this microfilm publication are part of the records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) designated as Records of the U.S. Court of Claims, Record Group (RG) 123. Records Relating to Enrollment of Eastern Cherokees by Guion Miller, 1908-10, M685, contains the general index to Eastern Cherokee applications, 2 volumes; the report submitted by Guion Miller, May 28, 1909, 10 volumes; the roll of Eastern Cherokees, May 28, 1909; the report on exceptions filed, January 5, 1910; the supplemental roll of Eastern Cherokees, January 5, 1910; transcripts of testimony, February, 1908-March 1909, 10 volumes; various indexes and rolls of Eastern Cherokee Indians, 1851, 1854, and 1884; and miscellaneous notes and drafts.

Additional records relating to the enrollment of Eastern Cherokee Indians are in Records of the Office of the Secretary of the Interior, Record Group 48.

These records were prepared for filming by Jestine Turner and William D. Grover, who also prepared these introductory remarks.

Sir:-

Your letter of February 16, 1907, relative to the right of your children to be enrolled for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, is at hand.

In reply you are advised that under the terms of the decree of the Court of Claims, as it now stands, your children would not be entitled to enrollment, and therefore it is at present unnecessary for them to file applications.

The question of the right of children to share in this fund, where their parents are living, has been referred to the Court of Claims by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior for determination, and if that Court should finally decide that the children are to be enrolled you will receive due notice.

Very respectfully,

Chief Clerk.

Hon. Guion Miller

Washington, D.C.

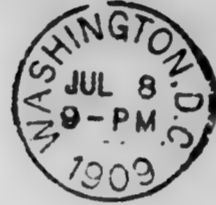

Sir:

Inclosed you will find application for my minor children for their shares of Emigrant funds. Eben and Mary have a Guardian S.R. Lewis appointed by my request for the purpose of selecting their lands in the Cherokee Nation before the Dawes Commission, as I could not be appointed these children's legal Guardian on account of being a married woman, but being separated from my husband and no divorce having as yet be granted. The children are in my care and have always lived with me and S.R. Lewis was appointed their Guardian just for the purpose of filing on their land in the Cherokee Nation. The last named child, Audie DuBois was born June 11, 1906 and is the child by my last husband, and is put down as a matter of identification.

Very respectfully

Nancy L. DuBois

FOR MINOR CHILDREN

For share of money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Act of Congress approved June 30, 1906, in accordance with the decrees of the Court of Claims of May 18, 1905, and May 28, 1906.

Maggie Poindexter, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Maggie Poindexter. My age is 43 years. I was born and raised up near Tahlequah. I have been living in this neighborhood 15 years. I claim Cherokee blood. I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission, Cherokee Roll # . I was enrolled for both bread and strip money. I get my blood from my father, and none from mother. John Jeffrey was his name. He is dead. Has been dead about 8 years. He was living close to Tahlequah. He was 56 years old when he died. He was probably not enrolled by the Dawes Commission as he has been dead 8 years. He was born in Alabama. He got the bread and strip money. I don't know when he left Alabama. I don't know about what time he came West. I don't know whether he was enrolled in 1851 and do not know any reason why he may not have been enrolled. He came after Peace was made. He got his blood from both parents. My grandfather was Steve Jeffrey, and he said to be a Cherokee Indian. He was enrolled a long time ago, but I don't know when. I don't know whether he lived East of the Mississippi. He lived in Alabama but I don't know whether he ever came West. My father's father was an Old Settler, and has been so called as he has been here since the war. My father's father came out here and went back and I don't know how long he stayed. He came out here on a visit. I only know what I heard my father say. I don't know whether they ever joined any other tribe of Indians. I never heard my people say they they were parties to the treaties, although I heard them talk about them. My father had a sister Lucinda Jeffrey; she married in time of the war. Lucinda Freeman. I don't know any brothers and sisters of my father, not my grandparents.

Isaiah was born in Tennessee and I think William was born in Tennessee. Eliza was the first one born in Missouri. He was about two years older than I. I have never gotten any Indian money from the government. I was away at the time of the payment. My father drew Indian money. He was living then in the western part of the Territory. He was not driven out here with the Indians. My father was a voter. I do not know what part of Tennessee he lived in but think it was middle Tennessee. I do not know what part of Georgia he lived in. I tried to get an allotment but was turned down. My father did not speak the Cherokee language. I never saw any Indians until I came to the Territory. I speak the Indian language a little. I learned it from the Indians around here. ~~My father~~ My father died in 1864.

Alice R. Ownby,

Duvall, Macon Co., N.C.

Madam:-

Relative to your application #5577 for a share of the money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians, in which you state that your great grandfather, Joseph Martin, was one half Cherokee Indian, will say, I cannot find the said Joseph Martin on the roll of 1835 or 1851. Where was Joseph Martin born, and what was the date of his birth? Where did he reside in 1835, and, if living, where did he reside in 1851? If he was living on either date, why was he not enrolled with the Cherokee Indians? Please trace your ancestors carefully from your great grandfather, Joseph Martin, down to your present family. Were were parents or grandparents of Indian and Negro blood, or of White and Indian blood? If they were of Negro blood, who was the Negro ancestor, and was he or any member of your family ever owned by Cherokee Indians as a slave? Why were your parents not enrolled in 1851, if they were living in Macon County, N.C. in said Eastern Cherokee District?

Please answer all questions fully, and oblige,

Respectfully,

LBD/ALL

Dear Sir:-

In answer to your letter concerning my claim, no. 5583, for Jesse, Lucinda and Arthur Sanders, I will say:

These are the children of Joshua Sanders who was a son of Thomas Sanders and but do not know the first name of the grandmother. It was the wife of Joshua Sanders whose maiden name was Quinton and not that of his grandmother. Do not know her Christian name. The grandfather, lived in the Cherokee Nation in 1851, his wife was a Cherokee. He has besides Joshua Sanders the following named children: Thomas Sanders, John Sanders, Cornelius Sanders, Mary Thornton (nee Sanders) and one other daughter whose name I am unable to get. Joshua and Cornelius were born before 1851.

I get this information of John Sanders of Claremore, Oklahoma, who is a second-cousin of said Joshua Sanders.

This claim was formerly grouped with #4024, but the father of this applicant is only a half brother on the mother's side of the father of #16810 with #4024, and #16810 et al are o. k. on the father's side of the father of #16810.

The minor's mother does not appear to have filed application in her own right, but merely as guardian, unless it is that she has since married and has filed under some other name. Her sister, however, Ora Raper, has filed application #23564, but that is marked "good only as to child" referred to in that application. The investigation, therefore, to be made should be directed along a line of inquiry with reference to the Indian descent of Jos. L. Mc Cracken, the father of this minor, and ascertain if the mother of Jos. Mc Cracken had Indian blood, and if so, under what name she was going in 1851. It would appear from other applications that she was married once to a Vann and once to a Mc Cracken. Investigate fully on the Mc Cracken side.
